PROFESSIONAL CAREER

Casey Matthis is the Transaction Coordinator for Bamboo Equity Partners. In this role, she processes and submits third-party applications and communicates with investors. Casey monitors critical milestone dates and assures that due diligence contingencies are properly communicated. She also creates and registers all organization documents for property acquisitions.

Casey joined Bamboo in 2020 as an Executive Assistant. She brings over 20 years of experience in the real estate industry, in both the residential and commercial realms. She began her career in sales with a local residential builder, before transitioning to manager/executive assistant of a commercial brokerage firm for over 13 years. Casey is currently acquiring her Missouri Real Estate License, and she is also a licensed Notary Public.

Native to St. Louis, Casey is an active member of the community, regularly volunteering at the St. Louis Food Bank, Basket of Hope and Southside Early Childhood Center.
