PROFESSIONAL CAREER

Brady Gehring, Principal and Director of Capital Markets at Bamboo Equity Partners™, is responsible for the underwriting and analysis of asset acquisitions and dispositions. Brady also oversees all financial reporting for the firm while managing the debt portfolio, operations and lender relationships.

Brady comes to Bamboo with almost 10 years of experience at Enterprise Holdings, Inc., where he held the title of Financial Reporting Accountant and Senior Treasury Analyst. At Enterprise, Brady was responsible for managing a multi-national debt portfolio in an effort to maintain a balanced cost of funds, utilizing operating forecasts and modeling in conjunction with capital market research and expectations. He also facilitated domestic and international cash management operations, including active participation in FX markets. Brady was successful in the critical role of developing and maintaining professional relationships with over 150 different financial institutions during his tenure.

Brady is currently a member of the CFA (Chartered Financial Analyst) Society of St. Louis. He previously served on the board of Friends of Care to Learn St. Louis.
