PROFESSIONAL CAREER

Griffin Palmer is an Acquisitions Associate at Bamboo Equity Partners™. Griffin's primary responsibilities are networking and communicating with brokers, sourcing and underwriting investment opportunities and ensuring brand recognition in the brokerage community. He is involved with the strategic property pipeline allocation across all investment vehicles in the Bamboo portfolio.

Prior to working with Bamboo, Griffin was a Brokerage Analyst at Intelica CRE, with a focus on business development in the local industrial and office markets. He teamed up with the principals of Intelica to increase their presence in sales, leasing and tenant representation. He worked in these markets with an emphasis on landlord representation, project leasing, tenant representation, contract negotiation and site selection.

Griffin graduated from the University of Illinois at Urbana Champaign. He played Tight End from 2016-2020 and in 2019 he was awarded the Academic All-Big Ten Performer as well as obtaining the Big Ten Distinguished Scholar Award in 2019-2020. Griffin has also acquired his Missouri Real Estate License in 2021.
